

ASHLEY NEWS

NOVEMBER - DECEMBER 2017

Jesus sent his twelve harvest hands out
with this charge:

“Don’t begin by travelling to some far-off place to convert unbelievers. And don’t try to be dramatic by tackling some public enemy. Go to the lost, confused people right here in the neighbourhood. Tell them that the kingdom is here...

You have been treated generously,
so live generously.”

Matthew 10:5-8 (The Message)

Notice board

The Book Group

The group will meet again at Ashley on Wednesday, November 29th, at 8pm, to talk about "I thought there would be cake" by Katherine Welby-Roberts, a topical book in particular for those who have watched recent media contributions on mental health issues.

There may also be time to talk about or read some poems. There are 10 poems in "Manchester Cathedral Poetry Competition 2016", published by Manchester Cathedral publications, for example.
All welcome.

Friday Study Group

Following the Harvest Bible Study groups the Friday group has decided to continue to meet on alternate Fridays from 1.15pm until 2.45pm-ish.
Dates until Christmas will be November 10th and 24th and December 8th and 22nd.
All welcome.
For more details contact Claire Wilkinson on 01727 853978.

Pilates

Did you know that we have a Pilates group at Ashley on Wednesday mornings?
Please speak to David or Gill Bywaters if you are interested.
