

Guided by a cloud 4 (Exodus 13:21-22)

HE HAS RISEN. HAPPY EASTER TO EVERYONE

Worship time – if you are able click choruses below to listen/join

The greatest day in history \(Happy Day\)

He has risen

See what a morning

I've been thinking about the disciples who were walking the road to Emmaus (Luke 24:13-35). Their world had been changed beyond recognition and they were struggling to make sense of what had happened. They were feeling alone and deserted. It was as they were discussing things that Jesus appeared alongside them, but they were kept from recognizing him.

Then starting with Moses and the prophets, Jesus explained what was said in all the scriptures about Him. As we know eventually their eyes were opened and they recognised Him.

We're in a time when our world has changed beyond recognition and sometimes it might be difficult to see where Jesus is. However, because of His resurrection we can be safe in the knowledge that he is with us and walking our path with us and perhaps, as in the footsteps poem, we need to be assured by the fact in the hardest of times when it might feel as though He's not there He is closest to us and carrying us.

We also have an opportunity to revisit all that was said about Him in the scriptures for ourselves.

God bless you all, stay well

Footprints

One night I dreamed a dream,
I was walking along the beach with my Lord.
Across the dark sky flashed scenes from my life.
For each scene, I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand,
one belonging to me and one to my Lord.

When the last scene of my life shot before me,
I looked back at the footprints in the sand.
There was only one set of footprints.
I realized that this was at the lowest
and saddest times of my life.
This always bothered me
and I questioned the Lord about my dilemma.

"Lord, You told me when I decided to follow You,
You would walk and talk with me all the way.
But I'm aware that during the most troublesome times of my life,
there is only one set of footprints.
I just don't understand why, when I need You most,
You leave me."

He whispered, "My precious child, I love you and will never leave you, never, ever,
during your trials and testings.
When you saw only one set of footprints,
It was then that I carried you."

Margaret Fishback Powers

"Cast all your anxiety on Him because he cares for you" 1Peter 5:7